JOHN ECCLES SETS

FORTH HIS POSITION.

Believes and Will Work for the Work- ingman, of Which Class He Has Always Been.

Compensation Act Will Pass—Com- mitted to Best Interests of All People

In an interview granted to The Bul- letin by John Eccles, a republican can- didate for representative from Nor- wich, he had much to say which will interest the entire body of citizens and laboring men in particular.

Eccles was honored by Governor Bal- win by being named as a member of the executive committee of the legisla- tive body.

He is a man of high character, a mission and with the two democratic members, Burton Mansfield and Tal- cott H. Russell, two of the ablest men in the state on insurance, had hear- ings about the state.

When asked concerning that pro- posed legislation Mr. Eccles said: "It is being drafted, it being a measure in which I am greatly interested and heartily in favor. The draft is being perfected as fast as possible and ought to be in shape to be given the public in a week or so. It is being pushed along as fast as possible."

In committing himself to such legisla- tion, Mr. Eccles declared that "It cannot be too strongly favored. It is a matter which I have urged and which ought to have attention." Mr. Eccles was unwilling to give any definite opinion as to the proposed act in advance, but felt that it was such as the good and bad features of such acts elsewhere had been studied that the draft for this state would be a worthy one.

When asked concerning other legisla- tion in behalf of the workman, Mr. Eccles said: "I have heard of it. Despite rumors to the contrary, I never was against the 58 hour law which is now in effect. I have heard laborer all my life and my sympathies are with the laboring man. It is un- just that because I was successful as a workman that I should be against the laborer."

It was recently decided to terminate the existence of the club owing to lack of interest on the part of many mem- bers.

DESPONDENT MOOD.

Miss Agnes M. Dawley Died at Her Home on Peck Street.

Miss Agnes Marie Dawley, aged 21, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Dawley, of No. 59 Peck street, died about midnight Friday at her home as the result of taking poison. A physician was summoned shortly after she took the poison, but she was unable to recover.

Miss Dawley had been employed as timekeeper in the telephone exchange at Providence for the past year. She was well known in this city. Besides her parents, she was the sister of James Dawley. She was a native of Norwich.

AUDITORIUM BANQUET HALL.

Motorcycle Club First to Hold Banquet There—Will Accommodate 300 Persons.

The work of finishing off the interior of the big banquet hall at the Auditorium hotel is rapidly nearing completion and has reached such a stage that it was possible for the Motorcycle Club to hold their banquet there Saturday evening, this being the first affair to take place in the new hall.

The evening was a most successful one and the affair was a most enjoyable and profitable one. The hall is being fitted with the latest appli- ances for the accommodation of com- pany. The capacity of the hall, which will be cut through the hall, is convenient entertaining of 300 persons. Food prepared in the main hotel kitchen is brought by elevator to this smaller kitchen, from whence it is served. There will be a noisless carpet on the floor and the hall is so ar- ranged that the noise of the street or other part of the house, so that speak- ers will not disturb the other guests.

The hall will have its own service and will be conducted sepa- rately from the hotel. Besides the entrance from the hotel lobby, there will be an entrance from the Olympic hall, to accommodate parties holding festivities there. The hall will probably be completed within ten days or two weeks.

OBITUARY.

John F. Coughlin.

Attorney John F. Coughlin died at the Wauregan hotel at 4 o'clock Sat- urday morning following an illness of two years with diabetes which sud- denly took an acute form Friday morning while he was in the lobby of the hotel.

He was born in Lebanon 32 years ago and was the son of John and Eliza- beth Coughlin. He was a graduate of the Norwich Free Academy and the New York Law school. He entered the office of Attorney J. J. Desmond and was in 1902 admitted to the county bar.

He was a past president of St. Jo- seph's Sodality and Literary associa- tion and a member of the Norwich Aerie, No. 357, F. O. E. He is sur- vived by his parents, a brother, M. Joseph Coughlin, of Springfield, and three sisters, Miss Anna Coughlin of Albany, Mrs. A. Scanton of West- field, and Miss Margaret Coughlin of Providence.

He was well known and held in high regard in this city and his sudden death is a source of deep concern to his many friends.

During the winter, beginning yester- day, vespers and benediction at St. Patrick's church Sunday afternoon will be at 2.30 o'clock.

There is considerable interest in the nine-hole match to open Thursday.

CAUGHT STABBER IN RHODE ISLAND

Ralph H. Douglass of Voluntown Tracked There by Deputy Sheriffs Draper and Stanton—Douglass Gashed Wallace Bramann in Abdomen With Bread Knife—Wound is Not Serious—Bramann in Hospital.

Late Saturday night in an alterca- tion near Beach point, about four miles east of the village of Voluntown, Ralph H. Douglass, 25, stabbed Wallace Bramann in the abdomen with a bread knife. Douglass, who was thought to be seriously hurt, was brought to the Backus hospital Sunday about 12.30 o'clock, and Douglass, Mr. Douglass, by team eastward towards the Rhode Island line.

At the hospital it was reported that the injury to Bramann was not as serious as had been feared, consisting only of a single stab wound from which no serious consequences were to be feared.

James Dixon and Grand Juror Silas Barber reported the stabbing to Deputy Sheriff Herbert B. Draper Sunday afternoon about 1.15 o'clock and Mr. Draper left at once for Voluntown, taking Deputy Sheriff George H. Stanton with him in an automobile. They made quick time and were out there in about an hour and then after a chase that lasted all the afternoon they finally rounded up the fugitive and arrested him at the home of Bramann's wife in the town of Richmond, county of Washington, about 10 miles from Hope Valley in Rhode Island.

The stabbing took place at the home of Douglass, where Bramann had been doing some painting for him.

These two men were trailed by the man they were after by the peculiar print of a shoe on one of the feet of the horse system was driving. One side of the shoe was longer, making a mark that showed them the way whenever they came to a road where Douglass might have turned off. They were close after him all the way and arrived at the home in Rhode Island about half an hour after Douglass reached there. A Rhode Island constable was on hand to assist them in making the arrest.

The deputy sheriffs arrived back here about 7.15 o'clock and had their prisoner locked up at police headquarters.

Douglass was taken to the hospital and made certain of getting their man by the close way they followed up Douglass.

The latter has a previous court record, having served a term in jail after being convicted in the superior court on the charge of adultery.

COMES TO AN END

WITH A BANQUET.

Norwich Motorcycle Club Held Final Event at Auditorium Hotel.

The closing social feature of its ex- tensive season, the banquet held by the Norwich Motorcycle club Saturday evening at the Auditorium hotel, and although the affair sounded the knell of the club's institution, it was a most successful one.

There were about 25 members present and the evening was a most enjoyable one, having a good time while it lasted.

The following appetizing menu was served at 10.30:

Mumford Cove Oysters.

Bisque Tomato and Cauliflower.

Celer and Olives.

Baked Chicken Halibut, Point Shirley.

Pommes a la Duchesse.

Native Chicken, Stuffed, Giblet Sauce.

Succotash.

Potato Croquettes.

Punch a la Roman.

Lobster Salad, Individual.

Peach Shortcake, Whipped Cream.

Cycle Club Cream on Surprise.

Water Wafers and Roquefort.

Demi-Tasse.

During the banquet a flashlight photo was taken of the group. The tables were adorned with seasonable decorations and the affair was an important part in the arrangement.

President C. C. Simpson presided at the post-prandial exercises in which the following remarks were given by various members of the club and interesting and appropriate remarks were made by the president.

The following officers of the club: President Simpson, Vice President William Hode, Secretary-Treasurer C. V. Pendleton, Jr., Capt. H. F. Burdick and Lieut. Peter Desjardins. The event, which was in every respect a thorough success, was a very happy one.

It was recently decided to terminate the existence of the club owing to lack of interest on the part of many mem- bers.
